Meet our Founder

Rama Mogilipala, the driving force behind TryCraft, passionately translates her deep love for handcrafts into the creation of a unique online crafts store. Her dedication and profound interest in the world of handmade goods inspire the carefully curated collection on TryCraft, spanning handlooms, leather, pottery, and various art forms, reflecting a rich cultural heritage. Beyond a mere business venture, TryCraft is Rama's personal journey to make art an integral part of everyone's life, providing easy access to a diverse range of handmade items. Her commitment to customer satisfaction is evident in the app's features, ensuring a seamless shopping experience and personalized assistance from a friendly support team. TryCraft stands as a testament to Rama Mogilipala's genuine dedication to promoting and sharing the beauty of handcrafted art globally.

Our Vision

TryCraft was developed from a heartfelt mission – to shine a spotlight on the incredible talent of Indian weavers and craftsmen. Our journey is a celebration of tradition, aiming to showcase the beauty and stories woven into every handloom and handicraft product. Through TryCraft, we invite you to join us in preserving and promoting the invaluable legacy of Indian craftsmanship, one exquisite creation at a time.
